“PROMOTING AIR SAFETY THROUGH EDUCATION”

www.airsafety.org
asgmass@aol.com

For the past sixteen years, the Aviation Safety Group of Massachusetts, Inc., along with the Boston FAA Safety Team, has acknowledged aviation professionals for their efforts to enhance safety and accident reduction. In years past, the awards were presented at our annual banquet. In a new format, the recipients will be honored at separate safety seminars later this year.

We are currently seeking candidates for the year 2009. If you know of an individual or organization that should be considered for any of these prestigious awards, we ask you to place them in nomination.

The award categories are:

- ASGM Lifetime Achievement Award: To an individual that has spent at least 40 years in the aviation field and made a positive impact to others.
- ASGM Lew Owen Young Eagle Award: To a high school student who plans to continue his/her education in the aviation field.
- ASGM Outstanding Achievement Award: For individuals who, through their actions have prevented an accident, overcame mechanical failure, or performed heroically during an emergency situation.
- FAA Safety Team Representative for Airworthiness
- FAA Safety Team Representative for Operations

In addition, the FAA is requesting nominations for the following awards which require separate documentation available through their link at:
<http://www.faasafety.gov> and click on Airman Award Programs.

- Wright Brothers Master Pilot
- Charles Taylor Master Mechanic
- Certified Flight Instructor of the Year

Please submit the attached form to either address shown on the form no later than September 1, 2009.

Thank you for your interest and support of the aviation safety program.
