For the past fifteen years, the Aviation Safety Group of Massachusetts, Inc. (ASGM), along with the Boston FSDO (now the FAASafety Team), has acknowledged aviation professionals who have been recognized for their efforts to enhance safety and accident reduction. They will be honored at the annual awards banquet in the spring.

At this time, we are seeking candidates for nominations. If you would like us to consider a person you feel most deserving of this prestigious award, we would ask you to place the name in nomination.

To nominate your candidate(s,) please submit the attached form to the address shown below no later than March 1, 2008.

Some of the award categories are:

FAA Safety Team Representative for Airworthiness:

FAA Safety Team Representative for Operations:

Airport Manager of the Year:

Certified Flight Instructor of the Year:

Lew Owen Young Eagle Award: To a high school student who plans to continue his/her education in the aviation field.

ASGM Outstanding Achievement Award: For individuals who, through their actions have prevented an accident, overcame mechanical failure, or performed heroically during an emergency situation.

Thank you for your interest and support of the aviation safety program.

Cordially,

Roger L. Knight
President: ASGM
